INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON FELIX HOUPHOUËT-BOIGNY'S WORK OF PEACE

Yamoussoukro
R.C.I.
From October 18 to 20 2018

I- Context and justification

1- Context

The Félix Houphouët-Boigny Foundation for the Search for Peace has decreed the year 2018, « Félix Houphouët-Boigny Year » with a view to paying a tribute to Félix Houphouët-Boigny, who chose the peaceful way to lead Côte d'Ivoire to independence and put peace at the heart of its policy to make Côte d'Ivoire a modern state.

The symposium on the theme « The Peace Work of Félix Houphouët-Boigny », which will take place from 18 to 20 October 2018 in Yamoussoukro, is part of these tributes and takes part in the activities of the Félix Houphouët-Boigny Foundation. for the search for peace.

From his entry into politics in 1945 to his death in 1993, Félix Houphouët-Boigny transcended peace to build the Ivorian nation. He saw peace as the key to development and harmony among men.

In this case, he declared that « Nothing will change unless statesmen have made the search for peace something other than the dressing up of their policy. Everything will change when this search for peace becomes the essential, real object of their concerns and their second nature. The interests which they defended until then will appear to them at that moment very derisory and perverse. Peace is not a word, it is a behavior¹ ».

2- Justification

Félix Houphouët-Boigny, President of the African Democratic Rally (GDR), party of the decolonization of French-speaking Black Africa and its Ivorian section, the Democratic Party of Côte d'Ivoire (PDCI-RDA), first president of the Republic of Ivory Coast from 1960 to 1993, was an exceptional man, builder of modern Ivory Coast and man of peace.

He had made peace, the highest human aspiration, and taught it to his people. He kept saying « there is more merit to peace than to war ».

He is one of the heads of state of the twentieth century who have left in fact and in history the memory of having been one of the most active peacemakers.

His quest for peace is marked by three signatures : the Basilica of Our Lady of Peace of Yamoussoukro, the Félix Houphouët-Boigny International Prize for the Search for Peace awarded by UNESCO, the Félix Houphouët-Boigny Foundation for Research Peace.

Yet, from 1999 to 2011, peace, social cohesion and development were severely disrupted by a wave of socio-economic and military-political crises.

Today, Côte d'Ivoire is looking for benchmarks, resources and concrete actions to consolidate peace and reconcile Ivorians and Ivorians.

Faced with the permanent weakening of peace, the vulnerability of social cohesion, the upsurge of violence and conflict, and the growing impoverishment, we are entitled to ask ourselves how did it go about to translate peace into behavior to the point of making Côte d'Ivoire a haven of peace under its governance. This is the main question that will be addressed by the participants.

The international symposium on "The work of peace of Félix Houphouët-Boigny" will allow to revisit the actions and the works carried out in the service of the peace, to collect testimonies, to share experiences, to revitalize its modes of management and resolution of social, political, economic, cultural and environmental crises, and to measure their impact on peace, equity, social justice and development.

The meeting proposed at the International Symposium on « Félix Houphouët-Boigny's Peace Work » goes beyond the academic framework because it is here, to build, jointly, a bridge between research and social actors confronted to crises and various conflicts.
